

Buffet 2010:

Café Heffer, Café De Deugniet,
Sociëteit der Prinsen, Café Het Pleidooi , de Ambassade, het Baantjer
Museum Café and Café II Prinsen

Heffer is situated in one of the most important monuments of Amsterdam. It was built in 1635 on a busy, urban crossroad between the city Hall and the 'IJ'. Heffer is originally a specialized taxhouse where taxes for products coming from the 'United East-Indian Compagnie' were paid. It was the domain of merchants, smugglers and idlers.
